If you practice criminal law, you need . . .

The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER

BNA's all-in-one-place, authoritative information service that

- alerts you to all major changes in criminal law
- cuts down on your reading load
- saves you time for the actual practice of law

BNA's CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER covers everything in the fast-changing criminal law field from interpretation and application of existing criminal law as reflected in the opinions and proceedings of courts at every level . . . to formulation of new legislation . . . to unconventional (and controversial) proposals for approaches to crime and the criminal.

Here's what you'll receive every week with The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER:

- a crisply written review and analysis of the latest criminal law developments
- Supreme Court proceedings, arguments, actions, and filings
- decisions and proceedings of federal courts of appeals, and district courts — as well as the principal courts of all the states
- a roundup of notable actions in Congress and state legislatures
- digests of reports and recommendations of commissions, associations, committees, the bar, and the press
- full text of all opinions of the U.S. Supreme Court in criminal cases, and of significant federal legislation
- cumulative indexes every six weeks — and a final index for the six-month period covered by the Reporter volume

You get all that and a whole lot more (along with a sturdy filing and reference binder) when you get The CRIMINAL LAW REPORTER.

Creditors' Rights in Bankruptcy

Author

Patrick A. Murphy of the California Bar; Partner, Murphy, Weir & Butler, San Francisco; speaker at numerous seminars on bankruptcy; co-author of Collier on Bankruptcy, Fifteenth Edition.

This book covers proceedings under the liquidation and rehabilitation chapter of the new Bankruptcy Act which became effective October 1, 1979. Topics of particular interest to creditors are covered in substantial detail. These include proof and allowances of claims, voiding powers, stays of lien enforcement and the rights of secured creditors.

Loose leaf, approximately 500 pages, 1980 edition. Annual supplementation is planned. 1 volume $65.00 plus $1.50 postage and handling.

My order includes future materials such as pocket parts, supplements, replacement pages, advance sheets and replacement, revised, recompiled or split volumes, future new editions and additional companion or related volumes. At any time, I will be free to cancel or change my order for upkeep services.
